

Interviewee Bio (Ending)

Name of Interviewee: _____

Tell what the person has done since the 1920s (e.g., employment, organizations he/she belongs to and recreational activities) You may also provide family information about the person. The ending bio should be between 2 and 5 sentences long. Some examples are shown below.

EXAMPLES

Frank Biesl was a welder for the A.O. Smith Company in Milwaukee and is now employed by the D.C. Everest School District as a custodian.

Peggy Reno is currently working as a parish nurse at First Presbyterian Church in Wausau. She also does consulting in infection control and performance improvement.

After returning home from Korea, Richard Crump became a high school teacher and principal. He is married and has four children. He enjoys woodworking, hunting, fishing, and reading books.

After the war, Russ attended and graduated from the University of Wisconsin with a degree in Recreation. He was the Directory of Recreation for the Wisconsin Child Center in Sparta, WI. In Tomah, Russ was the recreation leader at the VA hospital. He also worked at the Wisconsin Industrial Division and the Job Service. In 1986 Russ retired and now enjoys playing golf, skiing, fishing, and swimming in his free time. He also started the Ski for Youth Program at Sylvan Hill and taught skiing at Rib Mountain.